- 15.1 Per Capita tax and assessments shall be held as a standing appropriation and shall require no motion of the Local to pay the same.
- 15.2 The Local shall not submit any resolutions with regard to Federal legislation to any Labour Council or any Government body, if such legislation would have any effect on the members, unless such proposed resolution is in keeping with resolutions already approved by the Union at National Convention, or, if not so, unless such resolution has been approved by the National Executive Committee. Under no circumstances shall a resolution with regard to legislation be approved by a Local for submission to a central labour body if it has been disapproved by the National Convention or the National Executive Committee.

- 15.3 The Local shall establish a membership control system to determine the number of members and dues-paying employees and to control the check-off of union dues. Union stewards shall receive any information required to enable them to detect errors and prepare a monthly report to the Local Secretary-Treasurer.
- 15.4 The Local shall send to the National Secretary-Treasurer, on a monthly basis, any information available with regard to membership control and check-off of Union dues, specifically:
- (a) a list of new employees and new members;
 - (b) a list of employees who have left the bargaining units;
 - (c) a list of persons who are no longer members of the Union;
 - (d) a list of employees and/or members subject to the check-off system who have not paid Union dues, indicating the reason for non-payment;
 - (e) a list members who are no longer in good standing for failing to pay Union dues and/or assessments;
 - (f) a list of temporary workers.
- 15.5 Any officer of the Local shall make it their particular duty to comply with and implement National policies adopted by the Convention or by members through a referendum vote and the decisions of the National Executive Board.

ARTICLE 16

LOCAL BY-LAWS

- 16.1 Proposed by-laws for the Local shall be submitted to the National Executive Board where they will be examined for any conflict with the National Constitution. Any such conflict will be brought to the attention of the Local for amendment or deletion.

- 16.2 After any required deletions or amendments are made to the Local's draft, it shall be re-submitted to the National Executive Board.
